SCHEDER INSTALLED AS CONNECTICUT REALTORS® PRESIDENT

East Hartford, CT (January 8, 2014) – Sandra Maier Scheder, a REALTOR® and owner of Maier Real Estate in Meriden, Connecticut is the 2015 President of Connecticut REALTORS® (CTR).

Scheder has served many years on the CTR Board of Directors and on the Legislative, Issues Advocacy and Communications committees among others. She serves on the National Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors and Risk Management committee.

"I wanted to be president and it was a natural progression in that I had served in just about every position on a state level and a couple more than once," relays Scheder. "Experience is the best teacher and I'm looking forward to sharing forty plus years of real estate experience, learned through earning real estate designations and volunteering locally, regionally and on a state level. Homes provide shelter, a basic need. Owning a home fosters family growth, investment in the future, community involvement and so much more. Being part of that home finding process is a gift."

Scheder is a three time local REALTOR® of the year (New Haven Association of REALTORS®) and has served as local board president twice. She is also a member of the Women's Council of REALTORS®.

Scheder served on both the Meriden Board of Education and City Council. When elected, she was the youngest president of the Meriden YWCA. Scheder has been a 25 plus year member of the Girl Scouts of America, and is a longtime member of the Rotary Club including past service as the club's president. A graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, Scheder earned her real estate license at the age 16 (before the minimum age was increased).

She and her husband Ernie have been married for over three decades and have a daughter, Dr. Jaclyn Scheder Piatak, as well as two dogs. Her brother John is her business partner in the firm started in 1959 by her parents Jack and Theresa Maier.

Connecticut REALTORS® is a statewide trade association representing over 15,600 real estate professionals engaged in all aspects of real estate in Connecticut. The term REALTOR® is trademarked and denotes membership in the National Association of REALTORS®.
