

CIPS Certified International Property Specialist

A Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) is a REALTOR® who has demonstrated their commitment to providing specialized services to international clients. Completing the rigorous coursework designed to increase cultural diversity awareness and build knowledge of international business practices enhances their proven track record of international real estate transactions. CIPS designees are recognized as experts in international real estate, cultural diversities, market data, investment trends, marketing strategies, currency issues and financing. Designees have a world-wide network of fellow designees available to them, are constantly informed on the latest in international real estate news and continually work to increase their knowledge by attending specialized international seminars and conferences.
